Dear Friend:

Because of your consistent support for conservative causes and candidates in south central Pennsylvania, it is my pleasure to invite you to a special breakfast this Saturday, Oct. 6 at 8:30 AM at the Country Club of York.

This is the annual "Statesman of the Year" breakfast, and our award winner this year is State Representative Kristin Phillips-Hill, a candidate for State Senator.

To present this award, we have past "Statesmen of the Year," Congressman Scott Perry, State Senator Mike Folmer, and State Representatives Seth Grove and Kate Klunk.

The breakfast is organized by Conservative Christian Center and co-sponsored with York County Action, Uniformed Services League, Secure America Alliance and Americans for the Trump Agenda.

Because of your past strong support to our cause, and our wanting to make sure that friends like you are part of this year's breakfast, we have discounted the tickets to only $20 each (our cost). But wait... it gets better...

(NEXT PAGE: how to get 1 or 2 FREE breakfast seats. . .)

Scenes from last year's "Statesman of the Year" breakfast

Each person shown will be speaking/performing at this year's breakfast on Sat. Oct. 6, don't miss it!!

(Clockwise)

1. Ross Cleveland, CCC South Central PA Coordinator, at last year's breakfast with Congressman Scott Perry.
2. Ross Cleveland with the Board of the York CCC (including Emy Delgaudio, wearing dance troupe costume)
3. A real treat – the "KalayaanUSA Cultural Ensemble (Filipino word for "freedom) performed several patriotic dances – including helping lead the Star Spangled banner at the start of last year's breakfast – they'll be reprising that role on Oct. 6.
4. Dr. Ken Gibson, who will lead the closing prayer as he always does, poses with last year's Award winner, Congressman Scott Perry, who will present the award to this year's award winner at the Oct. 6 breakfast.

Or if you want to take me up on a challenge: come to breakfast with us with no check, no payment, no commitment. Pay nothing, promise nothing.

We have a limited number of seats, and this "challenge" admission requires you to register in advance and get a confirmation from us.

If you like what you see and hear, then write out a check for whatever amount you want, before you leave.

If not, then you owe nothing and I thank you for having breakfast with us.

We are desperate to expand our ranks in York County because we truly believe the future of America is at stake, and whether Christians vote in this year's election will determine whether America goes backwards to despair and failure, or forward to prosperity and hope.

Please let me know right away if you can attend. We have reserved a room that has limited seating, and last year's breakfast had every seat filled.

Let me know if you can attend in 1 of these ways:

- Visit online, Statesman2018.eventbrite.com (type the PROMO CODE, for my special offer: "challenge" or for the reduced tickets, type "twenty"), or
- Use email RSVP@ConservativeChristianCenter.org (be sure to provide your full name, phone number and your address), or
- You can call breakfast chairman, Emy Delgaudio, (717) 758-1522 to reserve your seat(s).

Because this special breakfast is this Saturday I will appreciate your taking one of these steps to let me know - YES or NO - if you can join me, Congressman Perry, Senator Folmer, Representatives Seth Grove & Kate Klunk, and our Breakfast Chairman Emy Delgaudio.

I really need to know, YES or NO, if you can be with us when we present this special award for strong performance for our conservative cause to State Representative Kristin Phillips-Hill.

One more very important item of business for Church-going Christians, is that this is also a "Candidate Forum" where we have invited the nominees of the major parties to come and speak to us.

Each candidate on the November election will be given several minutes to ask for your support.

We will also announce and provide our annual election VOTER GUIDE showing how the candidates answered our Survey questions and the "grade" we give them - "A" for best, "B," or a "C" - with "D" for those who did not respond at all (remember that when you vote in November).

We also have as special guests to speak briefly, the leader of each of our co-sponsor organizations, coming from out of town to support our work here:

Secure America Alliance, a conservative group which fights to defend the social security system and to oppose

Americans for the Trump Agenda, fighting to enact the agenda we all voted for when we elected Donald Trump as President in 2016 (Fredy Burgos, Project Director).

Uniformed Services League, which has fought to restore freedom for American soldiers unfairly imprisoned under President Barack Obama because they did their duty in a combat zone (Richard Buck, Project Director).

We will have a full agenda and I hope to see you and meet you at this year's annual "Statesman of the Year" and "Candidate Forum this Saturday, Oct. 6 at 8:30 AM.

There's one more thing that is very important.

Although we are providing a limited number of "challenge" (free) breakfast tickets (normal price is $35), we do need help to pay for this and for our Voter Guide and outreach effort.

There's no other organization in York County which focuses on getting out the conservative, Christian vote.

Conservative Christian Center through its Candidate Forum, Voter Guide, website, and "York County Action" e-newsletter consistently gets the word out.

We get the word out about the candidates and how they stand on the issues we care about.

We get the word out about good, conservative-Christian movies whether they are playing in a nearby theater for opening week, or at a private home-showing.

We take a bold stand on issues and fight to enact a Christian-friendly, conservative agenda.

CCC took the lead in helping organize a coalition of conservative groups to fill a bus to Washington DC to ask our U.S. Senators to vote for President Trump's nominee

Brett Kavanaugh for Supreme Court, and for Congressman Jim Jordan to be the next House Speaker (last week).

There is only one organization in York that consistently fights for conservative, Christian-friendly policies - Conservative Christian Center.

We put principles first, and don't hesitate to criticize or praise officeholders based upon their position on the issues we care about.

That's why we are highlighting the record of State Representative Kristin Phillips-Hill.

We do not endorse candidates, but we do give them a ranking - "A" for BEST and a "C" or a "D" for worst.

And we strongly urge conservative, church going Christians to vote with "an informed conscience" to elect the candidates who best represent your views.

Reaching out to you and other conservatives in this area with a letter like this (sent by regular mail and by email), and Facebook promotions, costs a lot of money. That's why I want to ask for your help.

If you can attend the breakfast on October 6, I'd like you to watch and listen, and decide if you like what you are hearing enough, to lend your financial support by writing out a check.

You can donate online or by mailing us a check.

If you cannot attend, then I'd like to ask you to write that check out right now. Because Conservative Christian Center is the best there is in this area to advocate for your views.

If you read this far, I'm betting you are a church-going conservative. They often call us "values voters."

We need to work together on the issues and for the candidates which will make America great again.

To do this Conservative Christian Center and I Over...

urgently need your financial support.

Please help. Write out a donation check for $15, $25, $50, $100 or even $500 or $1,000.

Any amount you can send will be a big help. But a larger check will really help us get the word out with our new VALUE VOTERS GUIDE and our advertising and promotion of this vitally needed information on Facebook.

And one last thing. Regardless of whether you can come on Saturday, and whether you can donate.

I want you to pray for our success. At CCC we really do believe in the power of prayer.

We pray for your response to this letter, for you to vote with an informed conscience, for you to live a spiritually enriched and rewarding life leading to eternal life. We pray this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Sincerely,

Ross Cleveland

CCC South Central PA Coordinator

P.S. CCC does not endorse or oppose candidates. We provide you information to help decide how to vote and we try to influence the outcome of public policy issues. We do this from a spiritual basis, as did our founding fathers when they created the Declaration of Independence and later the Constitution and its Bill of Rights.

We happily remind friends and foes alike, that America was formed under Judeo-Christian principles by strong believers. If you are one, please, join us on Saturday, October 6, or support us now. We need to hear back from you, either way. Thank you and God bless you.
