These two candidates for Governor did not respond to multiple requests for them to mark their opinions on this survey. They would normally have earned a "D" rating (did not respond) but instead we followed the lead of the PA Family Council, which used public records to determine their position on issues of interest to church-going conservatives. Based on their good work, we have assigned a score of B to Scott Wagner and "C" to Tom Wolf. For more info: <http://pafamily.org>.
