2019 Values Voter Guide

SURVEY FOR: Rebecca Warren, Superior Court Candidate

6. Having worked as an attorney for over 27 years, I have many significant accomplishments. Some include: as an Assistant District Attorney, creating the first Child Abuse Protocol for Columbia County to minimize trauma to child victims and train law enforcement and prosecutors on best practices; as an elected District Attorney, creating a robust victims' rights program, partnering with Temple Institute of Protective Services to prosecute individuals who abuse our elderly, and implementing a Multi-disciplinary Investigative Team to assist child victims and further child abuse prosecutions; as a litigator, representing the Republican Party of Pennsylvania in numerous election law cases; representing President Trump in the Jill Stein recount case.

8. In addition to the work mentioned in 6 above, I am proud of the fact that I have represented citizens from all walks of life with their varied legal needs over the last 27 years. I also have had the great privilege of securing justice for many victims as a District Attorney.

9. I am very proud of my children. Raising good Christian young men is one of my greatest life accomplishments. Being from a blue-collar family, I have worked very hard my entire life to achieve my goals. Earning my law degree was a significant achievement for me. Giving back to my community and my church through my life-time volunteer activities has also been extremely important to me. A highlight was my medical mission trip to Nicaragua a few years ago.

10. I am running for Superior Court so that I can ensure that fairness and equal justice for all prevails. Having experienced a denial of justice when my father and brother were victims of a double homicide by vehicle, and fighting to secure justice, I can relate to those who encounter a broken justice system. I want to use my extensive experience and personal grief to ensure justice for all.

12. Of all the Republican candidates, I have the most experience and am the most highly qualified. I have over 27 years of courtroom experience in almost every area of law that the Superior Court hears and decides on a daily basis. Having represented both plaintiffs and defendants throughout my career, I have the ability to consider both sides of every story and case. I know how to listen, be fair, and apply the law and the Constitution to the facts of each case. Most importantly, I know what it personally feels like to be denied justice. No other candidate brings that personal experience to the table. I want to use my family's ordeal to help improve the justice system and ensure justice for all.

Philosophy and Faith

III. 1. I am a believer and follower of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior. I am saved by his blood alone and not by works. I believe that as a Christian, we are to help others, do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with our God. We are to show Christian love to others no matter their walk in life or decisions they have made, for not one of us is perfect. I believe that we are to follow God's leading for our lives even when it doesn't make sense. God's ways are not our ways, nor is our timing his timing. I have great faith and trust that God will direct me and make my paths straight. Campaigning for a statewide office is a massive undertaking, and one confronts evil and spiritual warfare on a daily basis. I stand firm knowing that I am in God's hand, and he will make a way if it is his purpose and plan. I believe that Christians should seek public office to restore integrity, honesty and hope to our government and the people.

Rebecca Warren – Superior Court Candidate

Rebecca Warren was born and raised in a small coal town in Pennsylvania. After graduating with honors from Bloomsburg University, Rebecca was awarded a scholarship to The Dickinson School of Law, receiving her Juris Doctorate in 1991. Upon graduation, Rebecca joined a central Pennsylvania law firm, focusing on civil trial litigation in 26 counties, and achieving partnership status within one year.

In the late 90's, Rebecca was asked to join the Columbia County District Attorney's Office where she authored the County's first Child Abuse Protocol to minimize trauma to child victims. As Assistant District Attorney, Rebecca was primarily responsible for prosecuting all child abuse, sexual assault, and juvenile cases.

In 2002, Rebecca launched her own law firm in Danville, which became a profitable and respected multi-county enterprise. The firm focused on civil practice including business law, family law, estate planning and administration, real estate, and governmental solicitor positions.

After many years of success in private practice, Rebecca was approached to run for District Attorney of Montour County. Having lost her father and brother in a double homicide by vehicle, Rebecca felt that her calling was to provide a voice for victims and prosecute criminals. Rebecca waged a campaign that yielded a victory with 78% of the vote, thereby becoming the first woman to serve as a District Attorney in the 26th Judicial District. During her time as District Attorney, Rebecca was particularly passionate about protecting our elderly and children.

After taking a brief sabbatical following her tenure as District Attorney to engage in mission work, Rebecca accepted a partnership position with Philadelphia firm Obermayer Rebmann Maxwell & Hippel LLP where she served in the litigation, election law, white collar crime and appellate sections. Presently she is corporate counsel for the largest private distributor of dental supplies in the United States.

Throughout Rebecca's 27-year legal career, Rebecca has appeared in front of state, federal and county courts on thousands of cases. She has successfully argued in front of the Commonwealth and Superior Courts on many occasions. Most recently, she was part of the legal team representing the Republican Party of Pennsylvania and President-Elect Trump in the various election issues, contests, and recount challenges filed throughout Pennsylvania and in the Federal Courts, and representing Republican voters in the Pennsylvania redistricting case that was appealed all the way to the US Supreme Court.

Rebecca has actively contributed to many worthwhile causes and charities, including the Danville Child Development Center, Bloomsburg Public Library, the Montour-Delong Fair/4-H, PA State Police Camp Cadet, Aphasia Center, Grange, Maria Joseph Manor Continuing Care Community, and many others.

Rebecca has held memberships in the PA District Attorneys Association, American Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, National Association of Drug Court Professionals, PA Sheriffs' Association, Vehicular Crimes Prosecutor Network, Association of Corporate Counsel, Fight Crime: Invest in Kids, and (P.E.O.) Philanthropic Educational Organization, in addition to affiliations with many other charities and organizations.

After residing for most of her adult life in central Pennsylvania, Rebecca now resides in Northeastern Pennsylvania with her family.
